Black man profile by Home Depot's manager.

I walked in home depot to buy a grill and as I hit the corner after already being helped by an associate. The manager, walks up and tell me he refusing me service. This guy couldn't give me any reason. I asked him was the store close, he quote No they was not close , but he needed me to leave store. I continue to ask for a higher supervisor or officer to explain to me why I was, or wanted to be removed from store. He begin to try to help other shoppers while making me leave. I felt very uncomfortable being from Mississippi and the only black in the store I saw at the time. I begin to notice that he was helping all the light colored people. I'm well educated enough to know that this was profiling.

She implied that I should not record her and that she was CALLING THE POLICE.. I started to record. She requests for the manager, I reiterated to her that she can call the police and the manager as she had exclaimed as I had not done anything wrong. From there it goes left...
