Never Buy Mobile Homes inside a Mobile Home Park

Never Buy Mobile Homes inside a Mobile Home Park One of the worst things I ever did investing in real estate was buy mobile homes inside of mobile home parks. Some investors do well with this but personally my opinion is I will never buy a mobile home in a mobile home park again. Mobile home investing is a great strategy and I love buying mobile homes on land but not in parks. I share in today's video the reasons why buying mobile homes in parks is risky and a headache. I discuss mobile home zoning, personal versus real property, and buying mobiles inside versus outside of mobile home parks.
