Buying a New Manufactured Home-Its More Than You Think

How to buy a new manufactured home: Here's exactly how you can buy a manufactured home, step by step, and the process involved. Enjoy! Step 0: This is where it starts: Save for a down payment. Step 1: Talk to a lender. Before you can start shopping for your new manufactured home you have to know how much money you're going to have to spend. Talk to a lender before you begin shopping. Step 2: Start looking at floor plans. This is a fun step because there are so many manufactured home plans available so you'll have lots to look at. Step 3: Decide which manufactured home provider in your area you want to work with. This is a very important step because you're going to have a relationship with this company for the next 2 to 12 months, you want to make sure it's a good fit. Step 4: Decide which colors and upgrades you want in your home. I recommend researching different color palettes online before you go in to choose your colors, because there are a lot of choices and it can be overwhelming. Step 5: Sign the contract, pay the deposit and wait for your new manufactured home to be delivered! Depending on the time of year, how busy the factory is and the current real estate market it can take anywhere from 6 weeks to 12 months+ before your home arrives. Mobile Homes Pros and Cons | Manufactured Homes

There are several pros to buying a "mobile home or manufactured home" instead of a traditional stick-built house, but there are also cons as well. Before you decide to buy a mobile home or manufactured home, weigh the pros and cons to make certain your decision has both your financial and housing goals in mind. Modern mobile home or manufactured home can provide a quality, cost-effective alternative to a stick-built home. However, they have some cons to stick-built homes that you need to consider. Factors to consider, such as costs, laws that impact mobile home value, and low-cost stick-built alternatives, vary in different areas, so be sure to do your due diligence.
