Home Depot vs Lowes - Which is Better

You're going to be happy you watched this video! Everyone knows Home Depot is a great place to find tools and appliances, but do the savings stack up to those at Lowes? Renovation Day 35: Home Depot vs Lowes price match! And other ways to save money!

35 days in and almost finished up - the floors came out great, as did the kitchen after some backsplash trial and error. Just needs a few more exterior finishes and interior details cleaned up and it should be complete! Also, these are some creative ways to save some money throughout the process - enjoy! Add me on Snapchat/Instagram: GPStephan 1. Shop around for major appliances and large purchase. I initially got a quote from Home Depot and then took it to Lowes to see if they would beat that price, and they did. $400 saved in less than an hour of work! Coming soon: Taking the Lowes quote back to home depot and seeing who goes down the most ;) 2. Shop around Google to find the lowest prices. I checked out Window Coverings from Amazon and Ikea, but after some quick searching, I found SelectBlinds had the lowest price for custom made blinds. Easy choice and they were awesome - check them out here: goo.gl/1wBZS7 - You can do this for just about any item you're buying. 3. Do some of the minor work yourself. YouTube everything and you can get your own supplies for a fraction of the cost someone else will charge you for. I changed my own outlets pretty easily, as well as installing a lock - things that take under 10-15 minutes to do. Easy! In the past three quarters, Home Depot reported that an increase in "shrink" hurt its financial results. Retail shrinkage includes organized retail crime. Home Depot says if shrink gets too high, it may have to pass costs off to consumers. CNBC's Courtney Reagan reports.
